

Julia Wawrowska

Polish violist residing in Zurich. She has collaborated with artists such as Lisa Bathiashvili, Sergey Malov, and the Karajan Academy der Berliner Philharmoniker. Her education, focused on both solo and chamber development, at Hochschule für Musik Hanns Eisler Berlin under the guidance of Walter Kuessner, and at the Fryderyk Chopin University of Music in Warsaw under Katarzyna Budnik, reflects her commitment to refining her craft at Europe's top institutions. Since 2023, Julia has been pursuing the Master Specialised Performance Soloist program at the Zürcher Hochschule der Kunst in Switzerland under the mentorship of Lawrence Power.

She is a laureate of international competitions, including the recent achievement of the first Prize at solo category at the Contemporary Music Interpretation Competition ZHdK Second Prize and Best Performance of the Compulsory Piece Award at the XI Jan Rakowski International Viola Competition in Poznan. Julia made her debut as a soloist in 2022 with the Zielono-Górska Philharmonic. She has been a recipient of scholarships from the Minister of Culture and National Heritage Poland and the Deutschland Stipendium. Julia has been featured in international festivals such as the Davos Festival, Schleswig Holstein Music Festival, Kronberg Academy, La Folle Journee, and the Emanacje Festival. Since 2022, she has been supported by Pirastro as an Echo Arts Pirastro Young Artist. She plays an instrument crafted by Jerzy Wykpisz in 2018.
